Entire Day Has Been Taken Up In The House Of Representatives With Fiery Patriotic Speeches

PACIFISTS BUSY BUT IN THE MINORITY

Washington, April 4.—The American steamer Missouri with 32 Americans on board has been torpedoed and sunk without warning in the Mediterranean according to a dispatch received by the state department today from the United States consul at Genoa. All on board were saved. The dispatch did not say where or how the ship was sunk.

Reading what he declared to be unearthed evidence concerning the Zimmerman plot to align Mexico against the United States Representative Miller of Minn., in the house today declared that the plot includes:

- 1.—Establishment of submarine bases along Mexican ports.
- 2.—Use of German reservists in a war like movement against the United States along the Mexican border.
- 3.—Reservists to leave the United States and go into Mexico and then return to the border with Mexicans.

He declared that Germans at present are making munitions in Mexico. While in some instances ships with munition cargoes have left West Mexican ports.

Vila he said is surrounded by German officers who have taken the leadership of his band. Carranza too he said is under domination of the Germans.

Miller who is a member of the house foreign affairs committee solemnly said "we must pass this resolution now or drown the American flag forever."

The following resolution was passed by the Senate near midnight last night:

"Whereas the Imperial German government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that the state of war between the United States and the Imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and that the President be and he is hereby authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the Imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the congress of the United States."

Senator McCumber's substitute, the existence of a state of war upon the sinking of another American ship by Germany was defeated without a roll call.

Those who voted against the declaration of war were LaFollette, Stone, Norris, Gorman, Laue and Vandaman. The resolution passed 82 to 6.

Washington, April 5.—The house today sounded the battle cry and will be prepared to fight Germany within 24 hours or less. House speeches were fiery with patriotism. The speaker called upon the members to hasten the passage of the state of war resolution.

The house went into a "committee of the whole" soon after convening bringing up the state of war resolution for debate. Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee opened the discussion. Some pacifism crept in but there is no question that it will be overcome and the house will give hearty support to President Wilson and the passage of the resolution.

"We are a great nation. We cannot give the impression that we have degenerated ideas," said Representative Harrison, a Democratic leader of the committee.

Representative Harrison advised those who object to war to address themselves to Kaiser Wilhelm, von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Reichstag, and the author of that remarkable diplomatic sample of Kurtz—the Zimmerman note.

There was a temporary wrangle at the outset over the question of time for debate. Representative Cooper, pacifist, argued against giving up the time allotted to him by virtue of his position as ranking Republican member of the house foreign affairs committee.

When debating began Speaker Clark surrendered the chair to Representative Fitzgerald. Chairman Flood stirred the house when he said "The Imperial German government has thrust war upon us; time for argument has past, time for heroic action is here, our people will rally to the support of the government in this high and patriotic hour and meet war's sacrifices and war's perils as a brave and patriotic people should."

Representative Cooper declared "I come from a people who for generations have loved peace. I cannot not stand and let Germany wage war against us and do nothing. Let us set the example to the world this grand Republic of ours and let us at least be American in our rank and quality."

Representative Cooper along with two other representatives, began the pacifist opposition. They asked if the President had not said when he was seeking armed neutrality that he did not want war. "Did not Great Britain sink the Evelyn?" Cooper asked. "Great Britain has not taken any American lives during the war," returned Flood. "The Evelyn was sunk by a German mine in a German bay near the German coast." In Cooper's speech he intimated that at least twelve other Americans were against war in 1917. He said that sixteen men had asked him for time.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

THE ENCHANTED
FOREST

He Caught Sight of a
White Doe.

[Adapted from Grimm's Fairy Tales]

JACK and Evelyn clapped and clapped till daddy came and told them:
"There was once an enchanted forest in the neighborhood of a young king's property. It was said to be unsafe for travelers, and folks believed that when any one got into this forest it was hard to get out."
"Of course this story made the young king very eager to see what the forest was like. He did not rest till he had got the old king's permission to go and hunt there."

"So, taking his five pet animals, a lion, a bear, a wolf, a fox and a hare, he rode out into the forest with his many courtiers. He had just reached the edge of the forest when he caught sight of a white doe among the trees."

"The young king was much excited to see so beautiful a creature near by,
and he called out to his followers: 'Stay where you are till I return. I will go
after the beautiful thing.'"

"And off the king rode into the forest with only his pet animals following.
His courtiers waited all day, standing there on the forest's edge till evening. But no king came back. So they rode to the palace and told the young queen that her husband had gone into an enchanted forest to hunt a white doe
and had not yet come back."

"Of course this news put the young queen into a state of terrible anxiety.
Meanwhile the king had gone on riding after the doe, but had not been able to overtake her. Each time he thought her within shot she would spring ahead of him, and at last she disappeared."

"The king now became aware that he had ridden a long way into the forest. He took up his hunting horn and blew it. But no answer came. His followers were too far away to hear him and to answer."

"Night now fell, and the young king saw that it would be impossible for him to get out of the woods. So he got off his horse, lit a fire under one of the trees and prepared to stay there all night."

"While he was sitting by the fire, with all the night quiet and his pet animals sitting so still beside him, he thought he heard a human voice. He looked all around, but could see nothing. A little while later he heard what sounded like a groan right over his head. Looking up, he saw an old woman sitting on the tree and moaning, 'Oh, oh, oh, how cold I am!'"

"So the young king shouted back, 'Come down out of the tree and warm yourself by my fire if you are so cold!'"

TONOLINE IS BEAUTY AID, ANNOUNCES SPECIALIST

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest to Women

As health is a first aid to beauty
this story told by Mildred Louise,
beauty specialist of Boston Mass., is
of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health
giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

"I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion
finally brought on nervousness."

"Relief came, however, when I took
the advice of several women who said,
'Take tonoline.'"

"Not long after I started the ton-
oline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face."

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline
publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of
common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and
impurities of the blood—and quickly
restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at Woodward &
McPherson.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful
flesh builder it should not be taken by
any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those
who have been benefited by tonoline

in severe cases of stomach trouble and
nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

Entire Day Has Been Taken Up In The House Of Representatives With Fiery Patriotic Speeches

PACIFISTS BUSY BUT IN THE MINORITY

Washington, April 4.—The American steamer Missourian with 22 Americans on board has been torpedoed and sunk without warning in the Mediterranean according to a dispatch received by the state department today from the United States consul at Genoa. All on board were saved. The dispatch did not say where or how the ship was sunk.

Reading what he declared to be unearthed evidence concerning the Zimmerman plot to align Mexico against the United States Representative Miller of Minn., in the house today declared that the plot includes:

- 1.—Establishment of submarine bases along Mexican ports.
- 2.—Use of German reservists in a war like movement against the United States along the Mexican border;
- 3.—Reservists to leave the United States and go into Mexico and then return to the border with Mexicans.

He declared that Germans at present are making munitions in Mexico. While in some instances ships with munition cargoes have left West Mexican ports.

Villa he said is surrounded by German officers who have taken the leadership of his band. Carranza too he said is under domination of the Germans.

Miller who is a member of the house foreign affairs committee solemnly said "we must pass this resolution now or drown the American flag forever."

The following resolution was passed by the Senate near midnight last night:

"Whereas the Imperial German government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that the state of war between the United States and the Imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and that the President be and he is hereby authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the Imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the congress of the United States."

Senator McCumber's substitute, the existence of a state of war upon the sinking of another American ship by Germany was defeated without a roll call.

Those who voted against the declaration of war were LaFollette, Stone, Norris Groun, Lane and Vardaman. The resolution passed 82 to 6.

Washington, April 5.—The house today sounded the battle cry and will be prepared to fight Germany within 24 hours or less. House speeches were fiery with patriotism. The speaker called upon the members to hasten the passage of the state of war resolution.

The house went into a "committee of the whole" soon after convening bringing up the state of war resolution for debate. Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee opened the discussion. Some pacifism crept in but there is no question that it will be overcome and the house will give hearty support to President Wilson and the passage of the resolution.

"We are a great nation. We cannot give the impression that we have degenerated ideas," said Representative Harrison, a Democratic leader of the committee.

Representative Harrison advised those who object to war to address themselves to Kaiser Wilhelm, von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Reichstag, and the author of that remarkable diplomatic sample of Kurtz—the Zimmerman note.

There was a temporary wrangle at the outset over the question of time for debate. Representative Cooper, pacifist, argued against giving up the time allotted to him by virtue of his position as ranking Republican member of the house foreign affairs committee.

When debating began Speaker Clark surrendered the chair to Representative Fitzgerald. Chairman Flood stirred the house when he said "the Imperial government has thrust war upon us; time for argument has past, time for heroic action is here, our people will rally to the support of the government in this high and patriotic hour and meet war's sacrifices and war's perils as a brave and patriotic people should."

Representative Cooper declared "I come from a people who for thousands of years have loved peace. I cannot not stand and let Germany wage war against us and do nothing. Let us set the example to the world this grand Republic of ours and let us at least be American in our rank and quality."

Representative Cooper along with two other representatives, began the pacifist opposition. They asked if the President had not said when he was seeking armed neutrality that he did not want war. "Did not Great Britain sink the Evelyn?" Cooper asked. "Great Britain has not taken any American lives during the war," returned Flood. "The Evelyn was sunk by a German mine in a German bay near the German coast." In Cooper's speech he intimated that at least twelve other non-entente vessels were against war in 1916. He said that sixteen men had asked him for time.

Huge Appropriations Are Asked For Now

Daniels Asks for Men in all Departments of the Service

By Robert J. Bender

Washington, April 5.—The government went forward today in its preparations toward war. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo asked congress to appropriate $1,100,000,000 for army and navy expenses. Secretary Daniels asked that the navy personnel be raised from 85,000 to 150,000 and the marine personnel from 17,000 to 30,000. "The army," McAdoo said, "would require $2,932,537,933 and the navy $292,538,790 in addition to regular expenses. This vast sum will be raised through bond issues the rate of interest on the bonds to be around 3 and 3-1/2 per cent. The federal reserve board as previously planned will have charge of the task of the contemplated bond issues as well as the financing all war expenses.

Berlin Is Now Bitter Against The President

Accuse Wilson of Hypocrisy and Charge That he Wants War

By John Granden

Berlin, April 5.—Bitter criticism by the newspapers was made against President Wilson's address in Congress after it was received here. The England commanded the indignation against the Kaiser which led to a declaration of war against Germany, was the feature of newspaper comment against the "American executive" speech just received. They are indignant that President Wilson has declared the German government and the German people as in his speech. They can see no reason why the United States should wage war against Germany. They declared that President Wilson is a hypocrite; that he did not want war with Germany and that he is willing to fight her—not for the protection of American lives and interests. They declare that President Wilson's statements are untrue and dishonest and President Wilson knows it.

AN AMERICAN IS MADE OF WILL HAGERTY, JR

Well Young Man of Alleged Doubtful Allegiance Is Put Through by Problems Club

PLEASED WITH HIS CITIZENSHIP

Modern Problems Club last evening was fortunate enough to secure for its speaker Prothonotary John H. Moore. Mr. Moore so explained the naturalization question that it leaves no doubt in our minds relating to the foreign citizens.

First, he explained how an applicant must apply for his first papers or "declaration of intention" from the Court of Common Pleas. No witness is required, but many questions of status, race, occupation, height, weight, etc., are asked. He then went on to say that one day and return of second papers bringing with him to the court who can swear to his good faith and that he has been a resident of the state for five full years. The applicant named is then put to the test and in that time anyone can report any serious objections. A court of criminal cannot become a citizen and only while people are considered, this has the Chinese. Before receiving his second papers the foreigner must pass a very rigid examination given by the state examiner. Some of the questions are similar to those asked upon taking out of the first papers others are those relating to our government.

The way in which women become citizens is—any woman becomes a citizen of that county to which her husband bears allegiance.

We all wish to thank Mr. Moore for coming to us, and for explaining so clearly and interestingly a question we have all been very much interested in for some time.

Some of the club members then carried out Mr. Moore's instructions to the letter. William Hagerty, as the foreigner applying for his citizenship papers could not be beaten. His answers were clear, truthful and concise.

Miss Lillian Moore has spent a great deal of time at the court house securing the papers and necessary data relative to the final preparations for the meeting.

Miss Lillian acting as county prothonotary deserves much credit for the easy and unassuming way in which she fulfilled that office.

L. L. Hovess, as state examiner showed himself fully capable of retaining that office as he certainly did, ask some difficult questions of William Hagerty.

Bishop Shaw, as Judge, William Carey and Abner Bloom, as witnesses distinguished themselves with their good and witty answers.

Shaw then presented the foreigner with his citizenship papers and he is return swore his allegiance to the United States.

The President of the club then took the chair and appointed the various committees to take charge of the next meeting. Many helpful suggestions were offered regarding this meeting, when we expect to entertain the Old Soldiers and wives. High expectations are held regarding the next meeting as we expect it to be a large success. All new members are requested to get busy.

Local Friend Of The Kaiser And Real American Come To Blows

Both Regret the Incident But the Relating of the Tale May Result in Some Good

The fight and in Robert's at home can to fight just kick him under the belt. A fight swing to the jaw warning that was handed them in an occurrence in the Fourth Ward last evening which exemplified the position of our country, and let us sincerely hope the ultimate outcome of the present international struggle confronting us.

The fight was a real one. It was a fight between a real American and a real German. It was a fight between a man who was a friend of the Kaiser and a man who was a friend of the American people.

This was one of those respectable affairs that should never have occurred and is regretted today by both sides. It was a fight between a man who was a friend of the Kaiser and a man who was a friend of the American people. It was a fight between a man who was a friend of the Kaiser and a man who was a friend of the American people.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

THE ENCHANTED
FOREST

He Caught Sight of a
White Doe.

(Adapted from Grimm's Fairy Tales)

JACK and Evelyn clapped and clapped till daddy came and told them:
"There was once an enchanted forest in the neighborhood of a young king's property. It was said to be unsafe for travelers, and folks believed that when any one got into this forest it was hard to get out.
"Of course this story made the young king very eager to see what the forest
was like. He did not rest till he had got the old king's permission to go and hunt there.

"So, taking his five pet animals, a lion, a bear, a wolf, a fox and a hare, he rode out into the forest with his many courtiers. He had just reached the edge of the forest when he caught sight of a white doe among the trees.

"The young king was much excited to see so beautiful a creature near by,
and he called out to his followers: 'Stay where you are till I return. I will go
after the beautiful thing.'

"And off the king rode into the forest with only his pet animals following.

"His courtiers waited all day, standing there on the forest's edge till evening. But no king came back. So they rode to the palace and told the young
queen that her husband had gone into an enchanted forest to hunt a white doe
and had not yet come back.

"Of course this news put the young queen into a state of terrible anxiety.
Meanwhile the king had gone on riding after the doe, but had not been able to overtake her. Each time he thought her within shot she would spring ahead of him, and at last, she disappeared.

"The king now became aware that he had ridden a long way into the forest. He took up his hunting horn and blew it. But no answer came. His followers were too far away to hear him and to answer.

"Night now fell, and the young king saw that it would be impossible for him to get out of the woods. So he got off his horse, lit a fire under one of the trees and prepared to stay there all night.

"While he was sitting by the fire, with all the night quiet and his pet animals sitting so still beside him, he thought he heard a human voice. He looked
all around, but could see nothing. A little while later he heard what sounded like a groan right over his head. Looking up, he saw an old woman sitting on the tree and moaning, 'Oh, oh, oh, how cold I am!'

"So the young king shouted back, 'Come down out of the tree and warm
yourself by my fire if you are so cold!'

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest to Women

As health is a first aid to beauty
this story told by Mildred Louise,
beauty specialist of Boston Mass., is
of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health
giver than tonoline," said Mildred
Louise.

"I was for many months a victim of
stomach trouble and nervousness. I
suffered terribly from pains that
followed eating. Headaches also would
add to my worries. Poor digestion
finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took
the advice of several women who said,
"Take tonoline."

"Not long after I started the ton-
oline treatment, my patrons began to
remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline
publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of
common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the
mucous membranes, liver ailments and
impurities of the blood—and quickly
restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily at Woodward &
McPherson.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful
flesh builder it should not be taken by
any one not wishing to increase his
weight ten pounds or more. Although
many reports are received from those
who have been benefited by tonoline

in severe cases of stomach trouble and
nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.

A RAW, SORE THROAT Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tangle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of
the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.
